

Sinclair Broadcasting on its 63 stations has abused their licensing agreement in the past and upcoming in their partisan political agenda. They have used their stations to promote their political leanings. Why is the FCC aligning itself with them. Where is this leading us?